Jayden's Dragons

Dragons

By Jayden D.

There once were lots and lots and lots of dragons. The very first ones on the Earth were the cloud dragons. The two clouds were going to be best friends forever but one bad dragon that was really, really mean captured one and his friend never saw him until 25 days later. He fought the bad dragon and freed his friend. The bad dragon was defeated but another dragon, far worse than the other attacked. It was the strongest of the strongest of the dragons and could not be beat unless the dragons of Earth, Water, Fire, and Cloud joined together. And with their combined power were able to destroy the very bad dragon and bring peace to their lands.
